

My eNovativePiano account has expired. How do I resubscribe?

When you subscribe to eNovativePiano an account is created which you access by username/password. This account is linked to the email address that you used when you purchased your subscription. When your subscription expires, your account becomes 'inactive.' To resubscribe and reactivate your old account, follow these instructions:

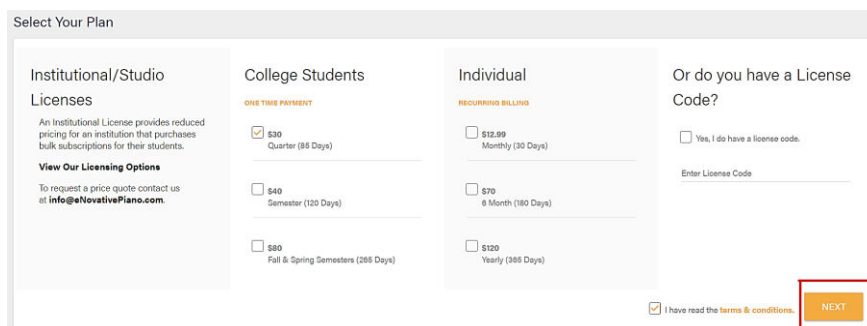

1. Go to www.enovativepiano.com
2. From the left side of the login screen "New or Returning Users," select "SIGN UP."

3. Select your subscription plan.

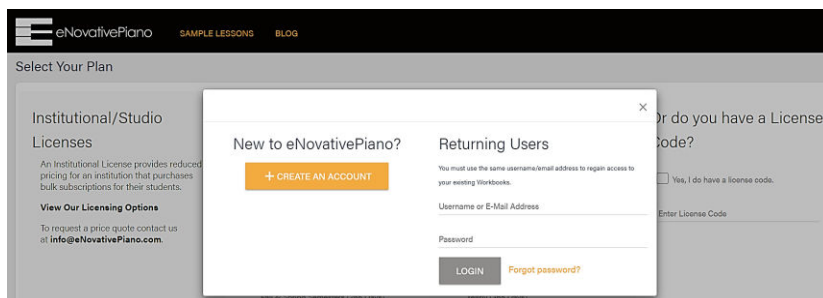

Choose your subscription plan (Semester, Quarter, etc.), accept the terms and conditions, then, select the orange "NEXT" button.

If you are purchasing a subscription with a license code, only complete the section "Or do you have a License Code?," accept the terms and conditions, and select "NEXT."

4. Now, enter the username/password for your expired account under "Returning Users."

To gain access to your original account and all your Workbooks, you must use the same username/email address that you used when you created your account.

5. Upon a successful login, you will be taken to a secure credit card processing page where you can enter your credit card information. If you are using a license code, you will bypass the credit card processing page.
